OTHER PROGRAMS

Learn for faithful service

Online courses in biblical understanding, ministry leadership, and practical church service.

Explore each course and its intended participants. Enrollment periods are October and April each year; confirm current registration details with the Institute.

A Deacon's Call to Higher Purpose

OFFERED ONLINE

Explore the biblical calling and work of deacons: faithful service, spiritual character, support for church leadership, care for the congregation, and preparation for broader ministry responsibilities.

Who benefits Current and prospective deacons, those discerning a move toward ministerial leadership, and pastors preparing church leaders.

Online study Offered through J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute.

October and April enrollment • Registration and a recommendation from the applicant's pastor are required.

Guarding the Flock

PLANNED FOR ONLINE DELIVERY

Examine the responsibility to teach sound doctrine, care for people, recognize harmful teaching, and lead a congregation with integrity.

Who benefits Pastors, elders, ministers, and those preparing for pastoral or congregational leadership.

Online study Planned through J. D. Williams, Sr. Bible Institute.

Enrollment periods: October and April each year.

MBA for Busy Pastors, Elders, and Ministers

PLANNED FOR ONLINE DELIVERY

Build practical management skills in budgets, people, operations, planning, organizational decisions, and ethical stewardship in church leadership.

Who benefits Pastors, elders, and ministers who manage ministry operations or wish to strengthen administrative skills.

Online study Planned to accommodate active ministry schedules.

Enrollment periods: October and April each year.

UPCOMING SERIES

Theology Unpacked

Focused mini-courses that make biblical and theological questions accessible while retaining depth.

Each topic pairs careful reading of Scripture with a clear explanation of key beliefs and their practical implications. Designed for new and experienced Bible students, teachers, ministry workers, and anyone seeking a firmer theological foundation.

ONLINE DELIVERY PLANNED • Enrollment periods: October and April each year.

01 Scripture in Context

Read biblical passages with attention to setting, audience, and purpose.

02 The One God Revealed

Explore the biblical foundation of Apostolic Oneness doctrine.

03 The Name of Jesus

Study the significance of Jesus' name in salvation, worship, and witness.

04 The Gospel in Acts

Trace apostolic preaching and responses to the gospel.

05 Prayer That Shapes Us

Develop a consistent life of prayer guided by Scripture.

06 The Holy Ghost and Christian Life

Explore the Spirit's work in new birth, holiness, and witness.

07 Holiness in Daily Life

Apply biblical principles to character, relationships, and decisions.

08 How to Study the Bible

Practice observation, interpretation, and faithful application.

09 Serving as a Deacon

Examine the character and practical work of deacon ministry.

10 Teaching with Purpose

Plan clear, faithful Bible lessons for church settings.

11 From Text to Sermon

Develop a focused sermon through careful study of a passage.

12 Disciples Who Make Disciples

Help new believers establish foundations for lasting growth.

Explore a course that fits your calling

Ask the Institute for current schedules, registration instructions, and any requirements before enrolling.

For more details, email: jdwilliamsdean7@gmail.com