BACHELOR PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Advanced study for mature Christian service

Purpose

JDWSRBI bachelor-level programs deepen biblical knowledge, strengthen Apostolic identity, and prepare students for expanded service in teaching, leadership, pastoral ministry, and theological reflection.

Who It Serves

These programs are designed for adult learners, ministers, pastors, deacons, teachers, church leaders, ministry workers, and students seeking structured bachelor-level preparation.

Institutional Identity

Each program reflects the Institute's commitment to being biblically grounded, Apostolically rooted, and practically focused through Scripture, doctrine, formation, leadership, and local church service.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Deeper biblical and theological understanding
- Stronger Apostolic doctrinal identity
- Practical preparation for teaching, preaching, leadership, and pastoral service
- Integration of scholarship, character, spiritual formation, and ministry practice

BACHELOR OF SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

Advanced Theological Study for Apostolic Understanding

This program provides advanced study in the major doctrines of the Christian faith from a Oneness Apostolic perspective. Students examine Scripture, God, Christology, salvation, holiness, the church, biblical authority, and the theological framework that supports faithful teaching, preaching, discipleship, and doctrinal clarity.

PROGRAM EMPHASIS

- Systematic study of Apostolic doctrine
- Biblical authority and theological interpretation
- Oneness Christology and the revelation of Jesus Christ
- Doctrinal clarity for preaching, teaching, and apologetics

STUDENTS WILL BE PREPARED TO

- Explain major doctrines with biblical accuracy
- Connect theology to worship, discipleship, and holiness
- Strengthen doctrinal teaching and ministry leadership

Recommended Audience

Students, pastors, ministers, church leaders, teachers, deacons, department leaders, and adult learners seeking structured bachelor-level preparation for biblical service and ministry leadership.

BACHELOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Preparing Teachers and Educational Leaders for the Church

This program equips students to teach Scripture clearly and design effective ministry-based learning experiences. It emphasizes Christian education theory, lesson planning, curriculum development, classroom leadership, learner engagement, assessment, educational technology, Apostolic doctrine, and practical teaching formation.

PROGRAM EMPHASIS

- Bible teaching with clarity and doctrinal faithfulness
- Lesson planning and curriculum design
- Instruction for children, youth, and adults
- Classroom leadership, assessment, and technology-supported learning

STUDENTS WILL BE PREPARED TO

- Develop clear Bible lessons and course materials
- Lead Christian learning environments with order and care
- Support Sunday school, Bible institute, and discipleship ministries

Recommended Audience

Students, pastors, ministers, church leaders, teachers, deacons, department leaders, and adult learners seeking structured bachelor-level preparation for biblical service and ministry leadership.

BACHELOR OF MINISTRY IN PASTORAL LEADERSHIP

Forming Leaders for Shepherding, Service, and Ministry Direction

This program prepares students for pastoral and ministry leadership through advanced study in preaching, shepherding, pastoral care, church administration, spiritual formation, ethics, evangelism, leadership development, conflict awareness, and practical ministry application. It is designed for those seeking to serve with wisdom, compassion, integrity, and biblical conviction.

PROGRAM EMPHASIS

- Pastoral theology and practical shepherding
- Preaching, care, discipleship, and evangelism
- Church administration, leadership, and ethical ministry
- Spiritual formation for sustained pastoral service

STUDENTS WILL BE PREPARED TO

- Lead with biblical wisdom and humility
- Serve congregations with compassion and order
- Strengthen preaching, pastoral care, and ministry coordination

Recommended Audience

Students, pastors, ministers, church leaders, teachers, deacons, department leaders, and adult learners seeking structured bachelor-level preparation for biblical service and ministry leadership.
